

DELRAY CAMPUS
COVID-19 (Coronavirus) Daily Message
Updated: May 17, 2020

Dear Parents,

We pray your weekend was enjoyable! This is our last week of school for the 2019-2020 school year. Please read the following notes and reminders this evening.

- Tomorrow, Monday, May 18, at 10 am, we are having an End-of-Year Parade in our parking lot at school. Our staff will be on-hand to give our students a little something for the end of the year, return any remaining classroom belongings, and wave hello in a safe way as you loop through the parking lot; please stay in your cars. We look forward to seeing everyone tomorrow morning!
- Our last Chapel service of the school year will be this Wednesday, May 20, at 9 am. Your child's teacher will send you the Zoom link for Chapel via email; the recording will also be posted in your Teams account afterward.
- Our last day of instruction for the school year is this Friday, May 22. Please continue to reach out to your child's teacher with any questions or help you may need to complete and submit any fourth quarter assignments. Final report cards will be sent out later this month.
- If you have any questions or feedback as we head into the last week of school, prepare for summer, and look ahead to a new school year in the fall, please let us know.

We pray you all have a blessed week and great finish to the year. The next message will be sent on Wednesday evening. The following is our closing prayer for this evening:

*Gracious God, thank you for the rest of this past weekend. We pray for your continued protection over all of us and that you keep our community safe in the coming weeks as the entire state prepares to enter phase one of reopening. Continue to keep us focused on you and trust in your unfailing promises. We ask for your forgiveness for the times we fail to do what we should and thank you for the gift of eternal salvation to all who believe. We pray this all in your name.
Amen.*

Blessings,

The DSA Administration
