

Parent College Planning Agreement Form

As a parent or legal guardian of a high school student enrolled at Divine Savior Academy, I have read the requirements of the Student College Planning Agreement Form.

As a parent or legal guardian of a high school student enrolled at DSA, I intend to

1. encourage my student to take full advantage of the assistance offered to him/her within the DSA College Planning Program;
2. attend related events scheduled for parents;
3. assist my student to participate in related events scheduled for students; and
4. accept responsibility for the results of my student's level of participation.

As a parent or legal guardian contributing to my student's college planning success, I will strive to

- be informed by reading weekly and monthly college planning communications,
- attend events scheduled for parents (e.g., parent orientation, college planning meeting, financial aid presentation, etc.),
- ensure that my student (gr. 9-11) is present for ACT Aspire and PSAT/NMSQT testing at DSA,
- return requested materials by stated deadlines (e.g., test prep registration, AP exams, summer college programs, etc.),
- schedule and make campus visits with my student,
- register online and pay for standardized testing (ACT and/or SAT),
- submit college applications for admission before October 1, senior year,
- complete FAFSA online before November 1, of senior year, and
- monitor fulfillment of community service graduation requirement by January of senior year (80 hours) and Florida Bright Futures Scholarships (100 hrs.).

I have read the Parent College Planning Agreement Form. By signing below, I pledge to actively assist my student to fulfill DSA college planning graduation requirements in compliance with Florida Senate Bill 1076.
